Overview of my presentation

- Why is it relevant?
- What are we talking about?
- What has been achieved in New York?
- What are the next steps?
- What can UN-GGIM: Europe contribute?

Relevance has been recognised

- 70% of world population:
No "people"- "land" relation registered
- Registration is a basis for sustainable, economic and social development
- Land equals life providing identity, shelter, growth, nourishment
- Land management enables right decision making, with a strong impact on perspective; fitting in the future we want
